

At KidzBlock Learning Center parents would have the option to make meal modifications due to religious, ethical or cultural reasons. This form excludes medical causes such as allergies or personal preferences such as dislike. (NOTE: For Medical Causes please fill out the Health Form). Parents/Guardian will have the options of bringing their own meals from home as long as is "nut safe" and it follows USDA's child nutrition program.

The kitchen area will have a Dietary Preference Board with the name of the child and the omitted food list and substitution.

I acknowledge that KidzBlock Learning Center cannot guarantee that the child will not be exposed to the listed foods, and that any changes should be communicate in writing to the Director office.

Due to religious, ethical or cultural reasons my child cannot be served the following foods:
